

Heart Touch Program

- Started in January 2013.
- Recognized as a student organization in January 2015.
- Supported by The University of Alabama's Crossroads Community Center, Critical Language Center, and Center for Community-Based Partnerships and by Tuscaloosa's One Place.
- Conducts Chinese and Japanese culture lessons, hands-on activities, field trips and pen-pal programs.
- Provides multicultural learning experiences for elementary children.
- Connects international students with American culture.
- Engages elementary children and university students in intercultural learning.

Number of Participants Served:

January 2013-May 2015 = 6,139

Number of Contact Hours:

January 2013-May 2015 = 9,542

hearttouchprogram@gmail.com

<https://ua.collagelatelink.net/organization/hearttouch>

Recipient of a SEED Grant for Most Outstanding Student-Initiated Project

Get Involved Today

- Activity Assistants: Assist with weekly culture workshops in elementary schools.
- Instructors: Teach intercultural workshops using Heart Touch lesson plans.
- Research Assistants: Collect and analyze data.
- Managers: Recruit volunteers, manage volunteer database, and coordinate communication for one elementary school.