HIspanic/Latino Heritage Month 2014

September 15
Common Book Experience
Latino Americans: The 500-Year Legacy That Shaped a Nation, by Ray Suárez
September 15 - October 6
Co-sponsored by the College of Communication & Information Sciences, the Department of American Studies, the Blackburn Institute, UA Crossroads, and the Honors College
Women Who Dared Photography Exhibit
Ferguson Center Art Gallery September 15 - October 13
Co-sponsored by the Women’s Resource Center and Ferguson Center Student Union
Brewer Porch Children’s Center September 15 - October 15
Students will learn about Hispanic Heritage through creative lessons and activities.

September 16
Hispanic/Latino Heritage Participatory Mural
Lobby area by the Ferguson Center Theatre September 15-19
Co-sponsored by the Capstone International Center, UA Crossroads, the Department of Art & Art History, Ferguson Center Student Union, Women’s Resource Center, Office of Student Involvement, and University Programs
Study Abroad Fair
10:00 am – 3:00 pm Ferguson Center Promenade
Sponsored by Capstone International Academic Programs

September 19
Women’s Soccer Game Day
6:00 pm
UA Women’s Soccer Field
Hosted by the Women’s Resource Center

September 21
Rumbal Free Beginner Dance Lessons 3:00 – 4:00 pm Calvary Baptist Church Gym Contact Jimmy Kunz @ ctcb@bama.ua.edu or 205-594-1495
Sponsored by Crimson Tide Ballroom Dancers

September 22
Latino Americans: The 500-Year Legacy That Shaped a Nation PBS Documentary Screening and Student Dialogues – Part 1 7:00 – 9:00 pm 205 Gorgas
Co-sponsored by the College of Communication & Information Sciences, the Department of American Studies, the Blackburn Institute, the Honors College, UA Crossroads, and University Programs
Immigration Policy and Latino Well-Being
David Becerra, PhD, Assistant Professor School of Social Work, Arizona State University 12:00 – 1:00 pm 104 Little Hall Hosted by the School of Social Work

September 23
National Association of Hispanic Journalists Interest Meeting 6:30 pm 297 Reese Phifer Hall
Sponsored by the Department of Journalism
Every Woman Book Club
My Beloved World, by Sonia Sotomayor Open to faculty, staff, and graduate students only. Participants must RSVP to cmiller1@sa.ua.edu 12:00 pm University Club
Hosted by the Women’s Resource Center

September 24
International Expressions: Fiesta Birmingham 2:00 – 4:00 pm (Buses leave at 12:30 pm) Register at www.fh.com
Co-sponsored by University Programs and UA Crossroads
Meet Natalie Tejeda and Vanessa Ariztia Hispanic Broadcast Journalists from Birmingham 12:00 pm Studio A, Reese Phifer Hall
Co-sponsored by the Department of Journalism and the National Association of Hispanic Journalists

September 25
Al Norte al Sur: Latino Life in the South Lecture and Reception Jen Galvez, Pulitzer prize-winning photojournalist 7:00 pm Ferguson Center Art Gallery Co-sponsored by the College of Arts & Sciences, the College of Communication & Information Sciences, the Summersell Center for the Study of the South, the Department of Modern Languages & Classics, UA Crossroads, and University Programs

September 26
Migrant Farmworkers, Mexican Immigration, and Latino Studies Program; and the Department of Languages & Classics, UA Crossroads, and University Programs

October 1
“Viva Español: Music of Spanish Song Composers” Jen Stephenson, Soprano, Christopher C. Jordan, Baritone, and Cindy St. Clair, Piano 3:00 pm
Frank W. Moody Music Building, Recital Hall
Sponsored by the University of Alabama School of Music

October 2
Latino Americans: The 500-Year Legacy That Shaped a Nation PBS Documentary Screening and Student Dialogues – Part 2 7:00 – 9:00 pm 205 Gorgas
Co-sponsored by the College of Communication & Information Sciences, the Department of American Studies, the Blackburn Institute, the Honors College, UA Crossroads, and University Programs
Student Affairs Divisional Meeting
Latino/Student-Faculty-Staff Panel 8:30 – 10:00 am

October 3
Midweek Latinx Film Screening of Broken Embraces 6:30 pm
Lecture by Professor Paul Garner, Professor of History at the University of Leeds (UK) and the Colegio de Mexico (Mexico) 5:00 – 6:00 pm 324 Lloyd Hall
Co-sponsored by the Bankhead Fund; the College of Arts & Sciences; the Latin American, Caribbean, and Latinx Studies Program; and the Department of Modern Languages & Classics

October 4
Al Norte al Sur: Latino Life in the South Lecture and Reception Jose Galvez, Pulitzer prize-winning photojournalist 7:00 pm Ferguson Center Art Gallery Co-sponsored by the College of Arts & Sciences, the College of Communication & Information Sciences, the Summersell Center for the Study of the South, the Department of Modern Languages & Classics, UA Crossroads, and University Programs

October 5
Al Norte al Sur: Latino Life in the South Lecture and Reception Hugo Balta, Past President National Association of Hispanic Journalists 7:00 pm 324 Lloyd Hall
Co-sponsored by the National Association of Hispanic Journalists, the College of Communication & Information Sciences, and the Department of Journalism
The Cultural and Social Routes of Food from the Americas Open to students enrolled in SP166, Culture of Civilization and Culture of Latin America Co-sponsored by the Department of Modern Languages & Classics and University Programs

October 6
Latino Americans: The 500-Year Legacy That Shaped a Nation PBS Documentary Screening and Student Dialogues – Part 3 with panel discussion 7:00 – 9:00 pm Ballroom, Ferguson Center
Co-sponsored by the College of Communication & Information Sciences, the Department of American Studies, the Blackburn Institute, the Honors College, UA Crossroads, and University Programs

October 7
Al Norte al Sur: Latino Life in the South Lecture and Reception Diana Mejia, Director of the Latin American Program Co-sponsored by the College of Arts & Sciences, the College of Communication & Information Sciences, the Summersell Center for the Study of the South, the Department of Modern Languages & Classics, UA Crossroads, and University Programs

October 8
“Westman Pearce and Mexico: British Imperialism or Mexican National Development 1889-1919?” Lecture by Professor Paul Garner, Professor of History at the University of Leeds (UK) and the Colegio de Mexico (Mexico) 5:00 – 6:00 pm 324 Lloyd Hall
Co-sponsored by the Bankhead Fund; the College of Arts & Sciences; the Latin American, Caribbean, and Latinx Studies Program; and the Department of Modern Languages & Classics

October 9
Latino Americans: The 500-Year Legacy That Shaped a Nation PBS Documentary Screening and Student Dialogues – Part 4 7:00 – 9:00 pm 205 Gorgas
Al Norte al Sur: Latino Life in the South Student Dialogues – Part 3 with panel discussion 7:00 – 9:00 pm 205 Gorgas
PBS Documentary Screening and Student Dialogues – Part 2 7:00 – 9:00 pm 205 Gorgas

October 10
“Immigration Policy and Latino Well-Being” David Becerra, PhD, Assistant Professor School of Social Work, Arizona State University 12:00 – 1:00 pm 104 Little Hall
Sponsored by the School of Social Work

October 11
Latino Americans: The 500-Year Legacy That Shaped a Nation PBS Documentary Screening and Student Dialogues – Part 3 with panel discussion 7:00 – 9:00 pm Ballroom, Ferguson Center
Co-sponsored by the College of Communication & Information Sciences, the Department of American Studies, the Blackburn Institute, the Honors College, UA Crossroads, and University Programs

October 12
Al Norte al Sur: Latino Life in the South Lecture and Reception Paola Martín, Director of the Latin American Program Co-sponsored by the College of Arts & Sciences, the College of Communication & Information Sciences, the Summersell Center for the Study of the South, the Department of Modern Languages & Classics, UA Crossroads, and University Programs

October 13
Al Norte al Sur: Latino Life in the South Lecture and Reception Hugo Balta, Past President National Association of Hispanic Journalists 7:00 pm 324 Lloyd Hall
Co-sponsored by the National Association of Hispanic Journalists, the College of Communication & Information Sciences, and the Department of Journalism
The Cultural and Social Routes of Food from the Americas Open to students enrolled in SP166, Culture of Civilization and Culture of Latin America Co-sponsored by the Department of Modern Languages & Classics and University Programs

October 14
Al Norte al Sur: Latino Life in the South Lecture and Reception Hugo Balta, Past President National Association of Hispanic Journalists 7:00 pm 324 Lloyd Hall
Co-sponsored by the National Association of Hispanic Journalists, the College of Communication & Information Sciences, and the Department of Journalism
The Cultural and Social Routes of Food from the Americas Open to students enrolled in SP166, Culture of Civilization and Culture of Latin America Co-sponsored by the Department of Modern Languages & Classics and University Programs

October 15
Al Norte al Sur: Latino Life in the South Lecture and Reception Hugo Balta, Past President National Association of Hispanic Journalists 7:00 pm 324 Lloyd Hall
Co-sponsored by the National Association of Hispanic Journalists, the College of Communication & Information Sciences, and the Department of Journalism
The Cultural and Social Routes of Food from the Americas Open to students enrolled in SP166, Culture of Civilization and Culture of Latin America Co-sponsored by the Department of Modern Languages & Classics and University Programs

October 16
“Immigration Policy and Latino Well-Being” David Becerra, PhD, Assistant Professor School of Social Work, Arizona State University 12:00 – 1:00 pm 104 Little Hall
Sponsored by the School of Social Work

September 15 – October 12
Photography Exhibit
Women Who Dared

September 16 – October 19
Hispanic/Latino Heritage Participatory Mural
Lobby area by the Ferguson Center Theatre September 15-19
Co-sponsored by the Capstone International Center, UA Crossroads, the Department of Art & Art History, Ferguson Center Student Union, Women’s Resource Center, Office of Student Involvement, and University Programs
Study Abroad Fair
10:00 am – 3:00 pm Ferguson Center Promenade
Sponsored by Capstone International Academic Programs

Women’s Soccer Game Day
6:00 pm
UA Women’s Soccer Field
Hosted by the Women’s Resource Center

Women Who Dared Photography Exhibit
Ferguson Center Art Gallery September 15 - October 13
Co-sponsored by the Women’s Resource Center and Ferguson Center Student Union
Brewer Porch Children’s Center September 15 - October 15
Students will learn about Hispanic Heritage through creative lessons and activities.

Hispanic/Latino Heritage Participatory Mural
Lobby area by the Ferguson Center Theatre September 15-19
Co-sponsored by the Capstone International Center, UA Crossroads, the Department of Art & Art History, Ferguson Center Student Union, Women’s Resource Center, Office of Student Involvement, and University Programs
Study Abroad Fair
10:00 am – 3:00 pm Ferguson Center Promenade
Sponsored by Capstone International Academic Programs

Women’s Soccer Game Day
6:00 pm
UA Women’s Soccer Field
Hosted by the Women’s Resource Center

Rumbal Free Beginner Dance Lessons 3:00 – 4:00 pm Calvary Baptist Church Gym Contact Jimmy Kunz @ ctcb@bama.ua.edu or 205-594-1495
Sponsored by Crimson Tide Ballroom Dancers

Latino Americans: The 500-Year Legacy That Shaped a Nation PBS Documentary Screening and Student Dialogues – Part 1 7:00 – 9:00 pm 205 Gorgas
Co-sponsored by the College of Communication & Information Sciences, the Department of American Studies, the Blackburn Institute, the Honors College, UA Crossroads, and University Programs

All events are free and open to the public unless marked by an asterisk.

For further information contact
CROSSROADS COMMUNITY CENTER 3617 Ferguson Center 205-348-6930